Part 1

- 1 You are a student in the senior class at Milton International College. It is a tradition at the college that the senior class organises an end-of-term activity, such as a party, and you have received a memo from the Principal asking you to write a proposal for this term's activity.
- Read the memo below, on which you have made some notes and, on page 3, the advertisements that the Principal has sent to you and the results of a student questionnaire. Then, using the information appropriately, write your proposal to the Principal, outlining the problem with last year's activity, suggesting a suitable activity for this year and requesting some more money for it.

M E M O

As you know, I have only recently become Principal of Milton and I am still learning about the college. I have been told that there is always an end-of-term activity and I look forward to attending this.

Could you tell me what last year's party was like and whether the students would like to do the same again?

The attached advertisements were delivered to the school this morning – are they of any use? Let me know what you think.

Could you also tell me as soon as possible if the end-of-term activity can be done within the same budget as last year?

Thank you.
